Sign up at bellevue.org/challenge and consider using these instructions as a tool for family discussions:

- Read each day's chapter with your family, letting each member of the family read a portion.
- Read the insights from Steve Wiggins. Summarize and simplify for young children if needed.
- Each Sunday, use the discussion questions sent via email to review the last six chapters.

Individuals, couples, teens, seniors, singles, and families have accepted the 90-Day Challenge. Here's what they're saying:

"Don't do what God calls you to do just so you can post it on social media. Give to others because He loves!" —15-year-old

"I just signed up for the 90-day challenge!" —Grandmother

"Jesus can do anything! God can turn a chocolate chip into an airplane!" —3-year-old's response to the question, "Do you think Jesus could command these stones to become loaves of bread?"

"Jesus didn't tell His disciples to fix their lives and then follow Him. He looked for teachable spirits that desired Him." —Single Adult

"The faith that says but does not do is really unbelief. Practice genuine faith, and out of that will flow good works. Matt. 7" —College Student

"Good word @wigbone in the 90-day challenge devotion today! Why did God wake you up this morning? Seek Him & His will today!" —Young Married's post on Twitter
